

Liquid Biopsy Crossword

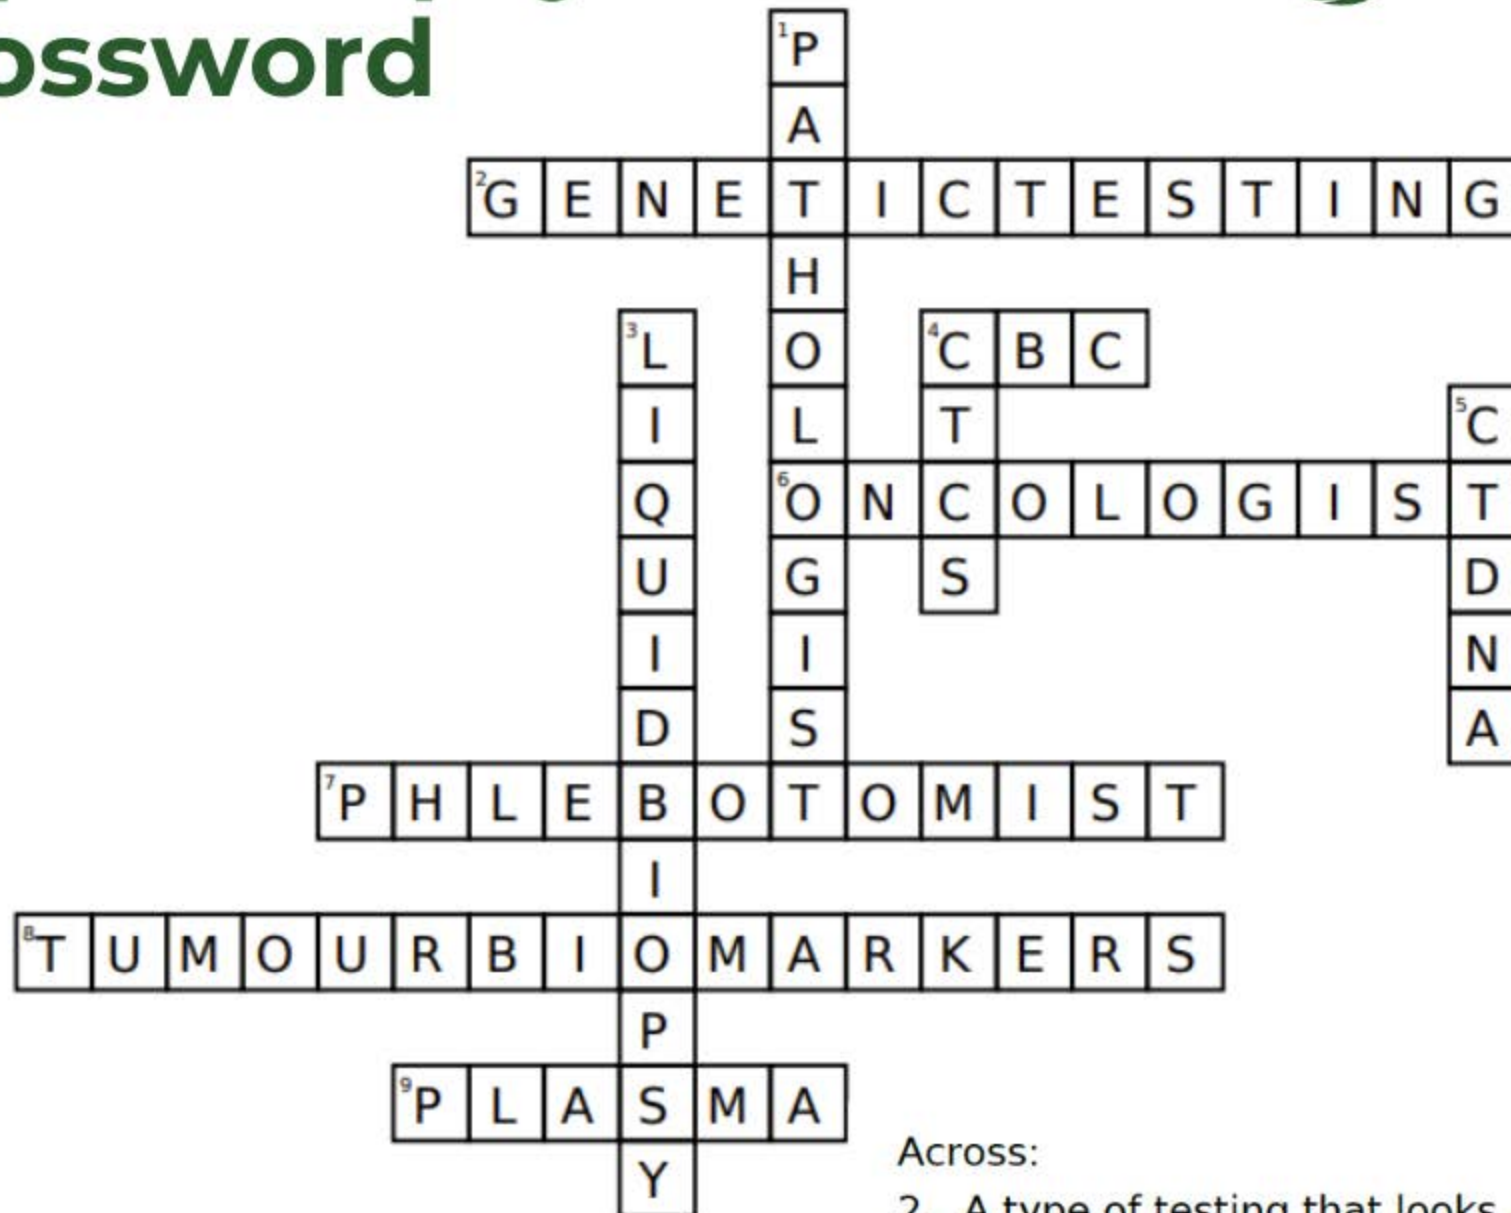

Down:

1. A doctor who studies tissues and fluids to diagnose disease.
3. A blood-based test that detects cancer-related genetic material.
4. Cancer cells that break away from a tumor and travel through the bloodstream. (abbr.)
5. Fragments of tumor DNA found circulating in the blood (abbr.)

Across:

2. A type of testing that looks at DNA to find mutations linked to disease.
4. A common blood test that counts red cells, white cells, and platelets. (abbr.)
6. A medical doctor who treats cancer.
7. A healthcare professional trained to draw blood from patients.
8. are substances produced by cancer cells or by the body in response to cancer.
9. The yellowish liquid part of blood, used in many lab tests.

Liquid Biopsy Crossword

Down:

1. A doctor who studies tissues and fluids to diagnose disease.
3. A blood-based test that detects cancer-related genetic material.
4. Cancer cells that break away from a tumor and travel through the bloodstream. (abbr.)
5. Fragments of tumor DNA found circulating in the blood (abbr.)

Across:

2. A type of testing that looks at DNA to find mutations linked to disease.
4. A common blood test that counts red cells, white cells, and platelets. (abbr.)
6. A medical doctor who treats cancer.
7. A healthcare professional trained to draw blood from patients.
8. are substances produced by cancer cells or by the body in response to cancer.
9. The yellowish liquid part of blood, used in many lab tests.